

Quest for the Rings -- Fiches / Token Reference

Symbol key for the tokens on the following pages.
Sizes shown are the true physical sizes, matching the original components.

Castle token (front side, all 23 identical):

Kasteel-fiche / Castle token

23 pcs - d 23mm - the larger token; the smaller fiches are hidden underneath it during setup

Symbols printed on the underside of the castle tokens (23 total):

De Kerkers / Dungeon

7 of the 23 castle tokens

De Kristallen Grotten / Crystal Cave

6 of the 23 castle tokens

De Inferno's / Inferno

4 of the 23 castle tokens

De Verschuivende Hallen / Moving Halls

6 of the 23 castle tokens

Other fiches:

Draak-monster / Dragon monster

3 pcs - d 17mm

Nachtmerrie-monster / Nightmare monster

3 pcs - d 17mm

Ring

10 pcs - d 17mm

Speurtocht / Quest marker

1 pcs - d 17mm

Zandloper / Hourglass (turn tracker)

1 pcs - 11 x 19mm

"Bezit" / Possession token

8 pcs - approx. 25 x 11.6mm (see note below)

Note on the "Bezit" token size: the source folder name (25 x 116mm) is almost certainly a typo for 25 x 11.6mm -- a 116mm-long chip would not fit the board. This sheet uses 25 x 11.6mm; tell me the real size if that's wrong and I'll regenerate it.

How to assemble

1. Print pages 2-4 at 100% scale / "actual size" (do not use "fit to page").
2. Page 2: cut out the ring, dragon, nightmare, quest, hourglass and "bezit" fiches along the dashed lines. These are single-sided.
3. Pages 3 & 4: cut out all 23 castle-front circles (page 3) and all 23 castle-back circles (page 4).
4. Glue one front circle to one back circle, back to back, matching the little triangle notch at the top edge of both circles so the token reads right-side-up from both sides. Since every front circle is identical, any front can be paired with any back symbol -- just keep the counts: 7 Kerkers, 6 Kristallen Grotten, 4 Inferno's, 6 Verschuivende Hallen.
5. For sturdier tokens, glue onto thin cardboard or laminate before cutting.
